Vishinsky Objects To Parts of Proposal For Accord in Berlin

PARIS, Oct. 21 (AP)—Russia's Andrei Y. Vishinsky tonight was reported to have advanced some objections to the new plan of the six "neutral" Security council members for settling the Berlin crisis.

GEN. CLAY GIVEN POWER TO ADD PLANES TO 'LIFT'

President Authorizes Berlin Commander to Call Up 66 Additional Craft

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (P)—President Truman today authorized General Lucius D. Clay, American commander in Germany, to add up to 66 additional C-54 transport planes for service connected with the Berlin airlift.

The transports will be provided by the Air Force as they are called for by Gen. Clay to keep blocked Berlin supplied, a White House official said.

The official said he understood that more than 200 of the large transports already are in the air lift service, either in directly provisioning the Russian-blockaded city or in sidelines to the so-called "operation Vittles."

CLAY VISITED the White House this morning with Secretary of the Army Royal for a half-hour conference with Mr. Truman.

Later in the day, it was understood, Clay attended a session of the National Security Council at the White House. The council is made up of the secretaries of state, defense, Army, Navy and Air, and other government leaders.

It was assumed that Clay had requested the additional transports in the morning session and had received approval of the request from the assembled members of the Security Council.

The White House official who disclosed the new authority for Gen. Clay was Eben Ayres, assistant press secretary. Ayres said the additional planes will be at the disposal of Clay as the general requests them and that some may not enter the air lift service directly, but be used instead in auxiliary operations.

EARLIER TODAY, Gen. Clay told a news conference he had "no evidence of troop activities in Eastern Germany" that might indicate Russian preparation for war.

Clay, who flew here from Berlin the past week for top level conference, said he had received information from the Russians that they have a "Communist indoctrinated police force" of 200,000 to 300,000 men in the Eastern zone of Germany. Similar allied forces are "very small."

He cut the life sentence of Ilse Koch, widow of the commander of the castle of Malenkov.

Doctors Told of Aid In Detecting Cancer

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21 (P)—A mysterious substance in the blood which may tell doctors whether a patient has hidden cancer was reported to the American College of Surgeons today.

Dr. Suad Niaz of the University of Minnesota Medical school, said at present this is only one of several potential tests for cancer, none of which is fool-proof. But he expressed optimism his method could be made conclusive. He said it might also show something about the cause of malignancy.

The unidentified substance is in the blood serum. When diphosphorylamine, an aniline dye derivative, is added to it, the substance turns purple. If the serum is from a person with hidden cancer it turns more deeply purple.

The present hitch in the test is that the purple color also deepens if the patient has chronic diseases, such as tuberculosis, rheumatic fever or certain other infections, or if the subject is a recent mother.

Truman Says New Deal Working for the Future

By The Associated Press
President Truman praised the New Deal last night as representing not only Democratic pride "in what we have done" but as "a program for going forward."

He spoke in a radio program sponsored by the International Ladies Garment Workers Union.

In New York, meanwhile, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey dealt with social injustice in America. He called for "a single standard of equal justice and equal treatment for all."

Dewey took part in a memorial dinner honoring the late Alfred E. Smith, New York governor who ran for the presidency in 1928 and lost to Republican Herbert Hoover.

Mr. Truman told his radio audience that the New Deal, fostered under President Franklin D. Roosevelt, built up a "great progressive body of laws." He said the Republicans are out to kill it.

THE REPUBLICANS, Mr. Truman said, are waiting to get control of Congress and the presidency to do "a real hatchet job."

Gov. Dewey was billed as a non-political speaker at the Smith dinner and not as the Republican presidential nominee opposed to Mr. Truman.

Dewey talked generally of civil rights—a field in which Southern Democrats and President Truman have found sharp grounds for disagreement.

From his experience as governor of New York state, with its many minority peoples, Dewey said, he is convinced that it is possible to meet "even our most difficult problems of discrimination against minority groups, of prejudice, of bigotry, of denial of certain human rights."

HENRY A. WALLACE, the Progressive party candidate for President, said in a speech in New York that what is needed is resolute planning for an America where "the cause of malnutrition."

Love Affair Ends Tragically in Bath Tub

CHICAGO, Oct. 21 (P)—Clashed tightly in each other's arms, the nude bodies of a couple that planned to be married this week were found today, submerged in an overflowing hotel bath tub.

The victims were Mrs. Jessie Beck, 31, of Chicago, mother of two children who was to have been divorced tomorrow, and her intended bridegroom, George Reading, 40, Detroit precision machinery salesman.

Chief Deputy Coroner Anthony C. Prusinski said the couple apparently swallowed pills from several bottles found in the room, got into the bath tub in Reading's hotel room, and turned on the water.

Water dripping into the room below led to the discovery of the bodies.

POLICE FOUND a letter to Reading from Mrs. Beck's estranged husband, Clarence, Dayton, Ohio, shoe salesman, saying: "Don't jump off any tall building—no woman is worth that."

Police, seeking a motive, said they learned that Beck had consented to a divorce but had warned Reading to "forget about Jessie entirely" and had mentioned the possibility of bringing suit for alienation of affections.

However, they also learned that Reading and Mrs. Beck had quarreled last night when Reading accompanied by another woman, called for Mrs. Beck.

AT THE Sherman hotel where she was employed as a perfume saleswoman in a drugstore, they said Mrs. Beck told Reading they were "all washed up."

Police said the couple's clothing was folded neatly over chairs in Reading's room in the Croydon hotel, and that they found a note saying: "May God forgive us. To our friends our love."

Jessie and George.

ATTORNEY CLARENCE C. Rhoads, counsel for Mrs. Beck, said his client and Reading were planning to marry immediately after Mrs. Beck's divorce. He said Beck agreed to the divorce in a stipulation signed on May 28, and that Mrs. Beck was to have custody of

Diamonds Recovered From Debris of Airliner Which Claimed 39 Lives

PRESTWICK, Scotland, Oct. 21 (P)—Police said tonight a $40,000 shipment of diamonds had been recovered from the wreckage of a Dutch airliner which crashed in an early morning fog killing 39 of the 40 persons aboard. Nine of the dead were Americans.

The diamonds were in a tin can. Their ownership could not be traced immediately because of destruction of the burned plane's cargo records.

The New York-bound KLM plane tore through a high voltage power line while attempting a landing and crashed into a cow pasture in one of the worst aviation disasters in British history.

THE FOUR-ENGINE plane, an American-made Lockheed Constellation, overshot the runway on its radar-guided approach to Prestwick's big international airport shortly after midnight.

It pulled up to circle again. The control tower heard a short radio burst.

Penn Village Committee Of Council Will Meet

Council's new Penn Village committee will hold its first meeting in borough hall at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

The new group, formed at the Oct. 11 council meeting, is headed by Gerald J. Daly, ninth ward.

It was organized after a delegation from the Penn Village Tenants association asked council at its past regular meeting to help the 65 families facing eviction because their incomes exceed the permissible limits in the low-rental government project.

Eagles to Purchase Prince Estate for New Aerie Quarters

Aerie 626, Fraternal Order of Eagles, last night decided to buy the Prince estate at 636 High street for its home.

The aerie has had an option on the property for the past 45 days and will pay first installment in 90 days, after which the lodge may move in.

The vote among 250 members at the special meeting in the Odd Fellows hall was unanimous. The sale price was not divulged.

It will be the second move for the aerie within five months. The past June, when the national order commanded the local home association to turn over its property at 310 High street, the aerie and the home association split.

The home association continued to meet at its quarters and the aerie took up residence in two rooms over the S. Paul Seeders beer distributing offices at 264 King street.

The new quarters will be more adequate for the aerie's 2900 members.

THE HOUSE IS a three-story gray stone building with terracotta tile roofing, 14 rooms and three baths. The property fronts 100 feet along the south side of High street and is 300 feet deep. There is a garage in the rear.

Members said they felt that the grounds would provide ample parking space.

The property, negotiated for privately, will be bought from the Prince estate. Now living in the house are Agnes Prince, Alfred B. Prince and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Leblang and their family, relatives of the former owners.

The big house, which has a tower on its west side, was designed from a painting of the wife of its builder and first owner.

Mrs. A. J. Bernhart traveled extensively in Europe with her husband just before they returned to Pottstown to build their home.

During their travels, Mrs. Bernhart, an amateur artist, sketched a German castle.

She showed her drawing to the architects, Lachman and Murphy, and asked for something of a facsimile. The plans incorporated the

Electric Mixer Is Stolen by Daylight Thief

A thief entered through a kitchen door in the home of William H. Morrell, 7 East Fourth street, yesterday afternoon, ignored a wall with $14 and a watch, but staggered off with an electric mixer.

Mrs. Morrell said she believed the theft occurred between 1 and 2 o'clock when she was upstairs bathing her seven-week-old daughter, Linda.

There were noises audible from below, Mrs. Morrell added, but she supposed they were being made in the adjoining house.

The theft bore the same stamp of illogic evident in two other Pottstown home entries recently, when the rooms were ransacked but nothing taken.

MRS. MORRELL did not report the burglary to borough police until 4:30 o'clock, when her husband came home, since she thought perhaps he had put it away somewhere.

In addition to ignoring the wallet and watch that were in easy-accessible kitchen cabinets, the thief passed up a motion picture projector and expensive guitar in other downstairs rooms. Nothing was upset.

The heavy, twin-beater appliance was valued by Mrs. Morrell at about $37. She believed it had been left on a kitchen table visible through the unlocked door.

Patrolman Paul Galloway has been assigned to investigate.

NO NEW CLUES to the identity of the prowlers who ransacked the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ladjanski, 60 South Evans street, early Wednesday morning were unearthed.

You couldn't beat yesterday for strolling in the country, taking in the kaleidoscopic carnival of the changing leaves and soaking up sunshine.

The autumn tints, about at their peak, were glorious in the all-day sun and the 50-degree air was as bracing as a quaterdeck breeze.

Clouds will gather today, the weatherman predicted. After a mild night tonight, they may pay off in light rain tomorrow, he added.

Nursing two broken toes on her right foot, Mrs. Dorothy Good, 23 Custer court, Penn Village, yesterday was regretting the mis-step which caused her to fall Wednesday night.

Mrs. Good broke the third and fourth toes of her foot when she turned her ankle and fell on a step at her home. She was taken to Memorial hospital, where Dr. Harold McLaren treated her for the injury.

Young patients in Pottstown's two hospitals will be able to enjoy programs of slides after next week when the Pottstown Optimist club presents its memorial for the late Dr. Angelo A. Gallo.

November Induction Slated for Draftees Who Pass Physicals

Pottstown's draft-eligible men who passed Wednesday's physical examination will go to induction centers during the final ten days of November.

This was made clear yesterday by an announcement in Harrisburg from Henry M. Gross, State Selective service director, who said induction notices should be going out any day now from the State's 175 local boards.

But what is your duty? What the day demands.—Goethe.

First Heavy Frost

THE first sharp frosts of the autumn came this week. Tuesday morning a heavy hoar whitened the meadows and the lawns, put a frosty coating on windshields of automobiles that stood out over night.

Again yesterday morning there were signs of it everywhere. Early risers looked out on a white world. Later risers could see evidence of the white frost in the portions of the lawn shaded by trees.

The flower beds are dead. Growth has stopped, decay has been intensified. Where there had been varied and brilliant life, the chill hand of death had passed. It recalled the sad little paragraph in which H. G. Wells lamented the passing of Summer's riches:

In the autumn before the snows come they have all gone—of all the incalculable abundance of life, of all that hope and adventure, excitement and deliciousness there is scarcely more to be found than a solid twig, a dirty seed, a dead leaf, black mould, or a rotting feather.

So it will be all too soon.
But still to be enjoyed is the glory of the trees, the most glorious defiance of the bleakness ahead.

Women in Uniform

IT MAY be co-incidental, but that doesn't make it any less fitting that this year, the centennial year of the women's rights movement in the United States, should also mark the introduction of women into a field previously marked for men only—the nation's regular armed forces.

True, women made admirable wartime records in all branches of the services, freeing men for combat duty and jobs generally considered too strenuous or hazardous for feminine soldiers. But that was on a temporary basis.

Now, in recognition of their wartime record, and out of a pressing need to make use of the nation's last vast untapped source of "manpower," the WAVES and WAF have been made permanent parts of our defense establishment. And during the first months in which regular status has been open to them, the women have showed a heartening willingness to serve and a shrewd appreciation of the career opportunities now available.

As with men in uniform, the monetary pay looks small at first, but adding in cost of living allowances, insurance, tax savings, retirement provisions, etc., a private first class in WAF, for instance, gets the equivalent of a civilian income of $4500. Retirement provisions are especially attractive to girls planning lifetime careers.

There are the usual openings for clerks and other desk work, but more than 400 other categories are available, including such things as radar, intelligence, radio communications, etc. And the chance for foreign travel is a big lure, too.

In times when speed to produce more goods has almost emptied the manpower barrel, the women in uniform, by easing the services' demands on the civilian economy, have renewed their claim on the nation's admiration and gratitude.

Living Off Uncle

MORE and more of Uncle Sam's relatives have taken to living off the old man. Senator Harry P. Byrd, who keeps track of the figures as chairman of the joint congressional economy committee, points out that in the first eight months of 1948 the federal payroll was increased by 125,178.

That's an average of 513 a day, or one every two minutes and 48 seconds. By August the number of civilians employed by the federal government had risen to 2,120,583. And the still-rising monthly cost of this huge payroll, swollen to more than twice pre-war size, exceeds $500 million.

Economists are pretty much in agreement that the high level of government spending is an important cause of inflation today.

Yet, the Truman administration rails against inflation, and demands controls that already stand discredited. And all the while it continues to foster the growth of its inflationary and super-colossal, election-year-special government payroll.

Making Life Simpler

VERY pleasant medical discoveries are those which label "harmless" something previously believed noxious. Such as the removal of Dr. Wallace Teed, of Ann Arbor, Mich., that one afflicted with a cold may safely blow his nose without fear of spreading the infection to the inner ear.

That adds more to comfort than the previous assurances that we may handle our noses without necessarily getting worse, or that high water pressure in the nose could cause the gunk. It gives us hope that in a few years sub-aching will again be harmless.

Council Ungrateful for Public's Airport Support

Too 'Dumb' to Say Thanks'

To the Editor: Three cheers! That noble, self-sacrificing, generous group of 20 men in town council have "guaranteed" that the borough will pay its share of $18,000 toward our much-needed airport.

Of course, they did so only after it was obvious that council would have to appropriate very little of the cash—or perhaps none at all, by the time Spring rolls around, as the borough manager pointed out so carefully.

But did they thank Mr. MacMullen's Citizens' Airport committee for the work it did in raising so many thousands of dollars?

Did they pass a resolution of thanks to the Pilot club for all the work its members did in canvassing the town and in seeing to it that money was raised for the airport?

Not only are our councilmen unwilling to take any positive step to get this town an airport, but they are ungrateful to the public-minded citizens who went out and pluggd.

You've got to admit, though, our councilmen may not be grateful, but they're dumb!

WASHINGTON

Texas Democrats Think Truman Will Lose State

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 — President Truman's unwavering wooing of former Vice-President John Nance Garner on his recent pilgrimage through Texas reveals vividly the White House fear that the Lone Star's 23 electoral votes may be lost through the combined assault of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and the Thurmond-Wright States Rights ticket.

Although Mr. Truman has advocated many of the extreme New Dealish policies which led to the sensational break between Mr. Garner and Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Democratic nominee made several desperate attempts to persuade the distinguished Texan, now 80, to stump the vast spaces of the Southwest on the presidential campaign train.

In a letter from Washington several weeks before his arrival in this territory, Mr. Truman requested Mr. Garner to ride the train from El Paso to Oklahoma City.

Besides making back platform appearances, it was hoped that the former Speaker and Vice-President would say a few helpful words for the President. Mr. Garner, who never leaves Uvalde these days because of his age, did not answer this communication.

DOUBLING: But Mr. Truman was not to be put off. In a subsequent telegram, he notified Mr. Garner that he was arranging for one of the latter's famous breakfasts.

The hospitable squire of Uvalde played an excellent host, serving every sort of dish from "moaning doves" to sausages and eggs. But not once did he discuss 1948 politics, or even ask Mr. Truman about the progress of his campaign.

When the President could not persuade Mr. Garner to accompany him on his Texas tour, he gathered up Rep. Lyndon Johnson, the ultra-New Dealer who defeated Coke Stevenson in the senatorial primary by only 87 votes out of almost 1,000,000 cast.

The shift caused some eyebrow-lifting, for Mr. Johnson represents and supports almost everything Mr. Garner detests. It is said that Mr. Truman lost perhaps 200,000 votes among Texas conservatives and states rights voters by doubling with the young member of the House.

POLL: Many Texas Democrats, including politicians friendly to the President, are making small bets that the President will not obtain a majority of the Nov. 2 vote, and therefore, will lose these 23 important pieces of paper. They make this prediction in face of the fact that Franklin D. Roosevelt always swept the state, and that a vast Republican only in the Al Smith year of 1928.

They question a recent public opinion poll which gives 61 percent to Mr. Truman, 23 to Dewey, 8 to Thurmond, 3 to Wallace and 5 undecided.

In their opinion, a more accurate estimate would be at least 30 percent for the Republican nominee, 15 or more for Thurmond and possibly 3 for Wallace. In such a lineup, Mr. Truman could easily lose the state, if there is a large number of Democratic stay-at-homes.

GOP strategists have taken note of this anti-Truman threat, and will route their top-notch speakers into Texas in the closing days of the contest. Their star speaker will be Sen. Robert A. Taft, of Ohio, whose anti-federalization attitude may find sympathetic audiences. Moreover, since the days when his father sat in the White House, the Tafts have always been popular in Mr. Garner's ranch country.

PENSION: The two men whom the Democrats have assailed most violently in the current campaign — Herbert Hoover and Senator Taft — happen to be the principal advocates of a pension for former Presidents, with a defeated Mr. Truman's possible need for a steady income after Jan. 20 as the main reason for their immediate interest in the project.

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 — President Truman's unwavering wooing of former Vice-President John Nance Garner on his recent pilgrimage through Texas reveals vividly the White House fear that the Lone Star's 23 electoral votes may be lost through the combined assault of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and the Thurmond-Wright States Rights ticket.

Although Mr. Truman has advocated many of the extreme New Dealish policies which led to the sensational break between Mr. Garner and Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Democratic nominee made several desperate attempts to persuade the distinguished Texan, now 80, to stump the vast spaces of the Southwest on the presidential campaign train.

In a letter from Washington several weeks before his arrival in this territory, Mr. Truman requested Mr. Garner to ride the train from El Paso to Oklahoma City.

Besides making back platform appearances, it was hoped that the former Speaker and Vice-President would say a few helpful words for the President. Mr. Garner, who never leaves Uvalde these days because of his age, did not answer this communication.

DOUBLING: But Mr. Truman was not to be put off. In a subsequent telegram, he notified Mr. Garner that he was arranging for one of the latter's famous breakfasts.

The hospitable squire of Uvalde played an excellent host, serving every sort of dish from "moaning doves" to sausages and eggs. But not once did he discuss 1948 politics, or even ask Mr. Truman about the progress of his campaign.

When the President could not persuade Mr. Garner to accompany him on his Texas tour, he gathered up Rep. Lyndon Johnson, the ultra-New Dealer who defeated Coke Stevenson in the senatorial primary by only 87 votes out of almost 1,000,000 cast.

The shift caused some eyebrow-lifting, for Mr. Johnson represents and supports almost everything Mr. Garner detests. It is said that Mr. Truman lost perhaps 200,000 votes among Texas conservatives and states rights voters by doubling with the young member of the House.

POLL: Many Texas Democrats, including politicians friendly to the President, are making small bets that the President will not obtain a majority of the Nov. 2 vote, and therefore, will lose these 23 important pieces of paper. They make this prediction in face of the fact that Franklin D. Roosevelt always swept the state, and that a vast Republican only in the Al Smith year of 1928.

They question a recent public opinion poll which gives 61 percent to Mr. Truman, 23 to Dewey, 8 to Thurmond, 3 to Wallace and 5 undecided.

In their opinion, a more accurate estimate would be at least 30 percent for the Republican nominee, 15 or more for Thurmond and possibly 3 for Wallace. In such a lineup, Mr. Truman could easily lose the state, if there is a large number of Democratic stay-at-homes.

GOP strategists have taken note of this anti-Truman threat, and will route their top-notch speakers into Texas in the closing days of the contest. Their star speaker will be Sen. Robert A. Taft, of Ohio, whose anti-federalization attitude may find sympathetic audiences. Moreover, since the days when his father sat in the White House, the Tafts have always been popular in Mr. Garner's ranch country.

PENSION: The two men whom the Democrats have assailed most violently in the current campaign — Herbert Hoover and Senator Taft — happen to be the principal advocates of a pension for former Presidents, with a defeated Mr. Truman's possible need for a steady income after Jan. 20 as the main reason for their immediate interest in the project.

Unfair Law Enforcement

To the Editor: It took a long time and lots of wrangling in borough council, but it looks as if some progress is being made in getting the kinks out of the traffic situation.

One-way streets, parking on one side of some streets, more traffic signals—all should help.

These new regulations won't do much good, though, unless there is someone to enforce them.

It is reported that there aren't enough men on the police force.

It also is reported that the men on the police force aren't given orders to enforce the laws, that special privileges are given some individuals in town.

Your editorial policy for an increase in manpower in the police department should be given consideration only after the police chief has proved that the force that he has is working efficiently.

Why do businessmen in town get away with parking in front of their shops all day with the meter's violation sign showing? Why are parking tickets torn up before they reach borough hall—and some of them after they reach borough hall?

An ordinance calls for eastbound traffic only in Burwood alley. Will it be enforced? I doubt it. Business people using this alley know they can ignore the law and get away with it. But let some poor sucker from the country try the same thing and—wham!

The average man who can't claim any special privileges from the police department will be the one who will pay the fines.

Make Tax System Work

To the Editor: I don't think much of Mr. Brown's argument ("Way to Get Improvements," Readers Say, Oct. 19) in support of a borough waste tax.

He said the system works in Philadelphia. Yes, the money comes in. But, as in Philadelphia, it finds its way into the pockets of municipal grafters instead of into community improvements.

The present tax system in Pottstown is fair. Tax equalization was one big step to improve it. Now we ought to crack down on those who aren't paying any per capita tax at all.

PROPOSAL BY 'TWO GUN MAN' ALL AROUND THE TOWN

Hollywood

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 21 — We're getting bored, as you all must be, with all the supposed "mystery" surrounding the visit of Al Kahn to Rita Hayworth this past week—

If a visit there was. Now, Al is a very flashy fellow. He never has less than four or five of the fastest, loudest cars with him in whatever burg he happens to be; he's usually surrounded with a large entourage and lots of dollars—and makes about eleven night-clubs per night. The gent is not bent on secrecy! He wouldn't be passing up the chance to get his picture in the papers with Darryl Zanuck, Jack Warner or any such friends — if he were here—because he just looooves publicity! We'd make a big fat bet that Al Kahn has not yet set foot in Hollywood, and that the whole thing was a publicity stunt cooked up to add to Rita's allure.

GENE TUNNEY, who has lots to invest, is investing heavily in television, along with some other men who have formed a big syndicate. . . . The Hollywood Touch: The pocketbook addition of F. Winwar's "Joan of Arc" has a picture of Ingrid Bergman which carries the caption, "History's Most Glorious Girl." Filmmakers insiders are curious to see what kind of business the co-expensive movie, "Joan of Arc" will do, since Bergman's last picture "Arch of Triumph" was such a flop. . . . Gail Russell and Guy Madison are finally expected to "elope" within the next three weeks. One sign: Both have asked for time off from their studios.

TWO OF THE greatest craftsmen in their respective fields are getting together to do a Broadway musical show. They are Irving Berlin and Robert E. Sherwood, who'll scribble the book and libretto. Don't know who proposed this marriage of talents — but it was a happy idea. As to the title, they ain't talkin' . . . Cleo Moore, signed for a film version of the Edward Thompson novel "A Seed in Spring," is the same Cleo Moore once married to Huey Long's son. . . . Art Linkletter of the air waves has added a children's jacket business to his interest. . . . Claire Jones went into the hospital for some very slight slicing in a day or so. . . . Those producers at 20th-Fox and Metro who play baseball at each other once a week, sure believe in "hymn dangerously." The fact that there isn't a man on the teams under forty, is a mere detail. Last game, Ben Lyon got conked on the head with a ball and knocked out. And Dore Schary got himself a Charley-horse and fainted dead away! They really oughta endow a ward of their OWN at St. John's!

JOBS UPON A TIME
Dr. Vannevar Bush, famous as the inventor of the "mechanical brain," and developments in the field of electronics and thermostatic controls, was born in Everett, Mass. As a boy he pumped the organ in the church in which his father was pastor. After getting his B.S. from Tufts college and a doctor's degree in engineering from Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Bush helped the navy develop submarine detection devices in World War I, taught engineering at MIT, and became president of Carnegie Institution of Washington. During World War II Dr. Bush was director of the Office of Scientific Research and Development.

Verree Teasdale, veteran screen actress, was born in Spokane, Wash. She was educated at Erasmus Hall, Brooklyn, N. Y., and attended the American Academy of Dramatic Arts and the New York School of Expression. She appeared in The Greeks Had a Word for It, The Constant Wife, and other Broadway plays before going to Hollywood where she has made many pictures. Miss Teasdale is, in private life, Mrs. Adolph Menjou.

MODERN MANNERS
If you are staying at an American style hotel, after you have been shown to a place at table on the first day, you usually go at once to that seat for each meal as long as you stay.

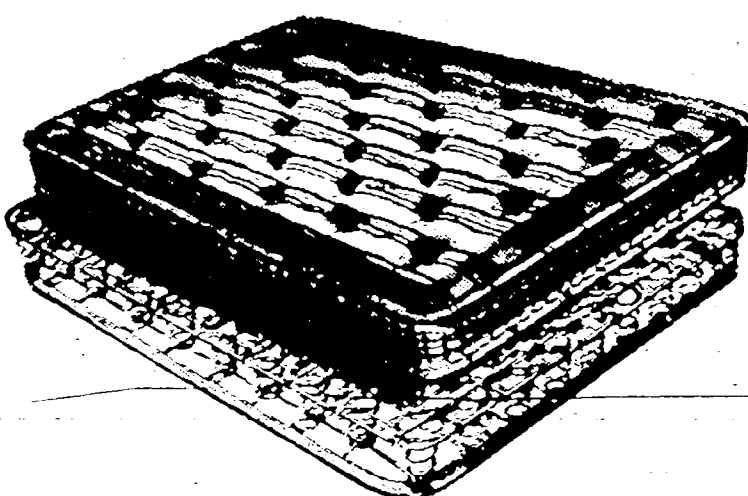

IT HAPPENED TODAY
On Oct. 22, 1883, the Metropolitan Opera House opened in New York City with a presentation of Gounod's "Faust." Franz List, famous Hungarian composer, conductor and pianist, was born on this date in 1811.

Magic Show Fund To Be Expended on Lions' Sight Work

Funds from the appearance of the Great Virgil's Magic circus at the Pottstown Senior High school Wednesday night will go to the sight conservation and blind persons fund of the Pottstown Lions club, William A. White, president, announced yesterday. Through these funds, the club supplies eyeglasses for needy persons and conducts sight conservation work. White said the funds were being built up for the eventual realization of the club's major project—the establishment of a sight clinic in Pottstown. More than 1000 persons attended the show Wednesday night. They saw a two-part show which featured such acts of magic as snooting a live canary into a lighted electric light bulb, passing a girl through the eye of a needle, sawing a woman in half, and floating a girl in space. The show was preceded by a concert by the Pottstown Junior High school band under the direction of Mrs. Paula K. Swensford. A report of the amount realized by the show will be made to the club at its meeting Tuesday night, White said.

11 Area Residents To Tabulate Ballots

Eight residents of the Pottstown area will serve on the official tabulating board when it checks the returns from Montgomery county's 191 precincts. Election results will be tabulated officially beginning at noon, Friday, Nov. 5 in Norristown, under the supervision of Calvin W. Rugg, chief clerk of the county board of elections. Clarence G. Welker of Pottstown, will serve as vice chairman.

Others will include John C. Markley, of Schwenksville; Mrs. Edwina H. Unruh, 762 High street; Alma Purdy Clark, of Red Hill; Mrs. Horace Seidel, Beech and Pine streets; Mrs. Mabel H. Knauer, 1386 Queen street; William H. Wagner, of Gilbertsville; and Charles J. Smedley, 27 West Fifth avenue, Collegeville.

23 Hurt, None Killed In Kansas Crack-Up Of Santa Fe Limited

GARDEN CITY, Kans., Oct. 21 (AP)—The Santa Fe's east-bound California Limited jumped the tracks near here today, sending 10 of its 12 cars hurtling from the road bed. Twenty-three passengers were injured severely enough to require hospital treatment. No one was killed.

Dr. G. R. Hastings, of Garden City, reported about 65 passengers were treated, most of them at the scene, for cuts, bruises and shock. Those not requiring hospitalization continued their trip on a relief train.

The limited's diesel engine ploughed up several hundred yards of rail as the rear trucks of its first unit left the tracks. A baggage car was split open. Two other cars were hurled over a short embankment and rolled over on their sides. Mail sacks were scattered over a field.

A BRAKEMAN, Earl Gentz, of La Junta, Colo., reported a broken rail had been discovered at the wreck scene. He said he thought it caused the accident.

Ambulances from four nearby towns rushed to the wreck. There was no hysteria among the 130 passengers as rescuers helped them from the wreckage.

"The calmness of everyone was remarkable," Dr. Hastings said. "There was one fellow—probably a porter—who seemed to know his stuff. He had everything in order when we doctors arrived."

Dr. Hastings said about 15 of the passengers were hurt seriously, but none critically. All but two of the 23 taken to a hospital were still there tonight.

AT THE TIME of the wreck the Limited, traveling from Los Angeles to Chicago, had just passed the westbound Super Chief and El Capitan. The Santa Fe's top passenger train was six miles east of here near the little town of Mansfield.

The last two cars of the train, pullmans, stayed on the track.

W. R. Henry of Pueblo, Colo. the engineer, said he first was aware something was wrong when he felt a bump. Then the emergency brake went on and the diesel power went off.

Elissa Landi, 43, Actress and Writer, Succumbs to Cancer

KINGSTON, N. H., Oct. 21 (AP) — Elissa Landi, 43-year-old actress and writer familiar to American moviegoers of the 1930's, died today of cancer.

She had been in Kingston hospital for ten days. Her physician, Dr. Kenneth Lefever, said the blonde actress never knew the cause of her fatal illness.

Her family learned of it nine months ago but her husband, Curiss Thomas, did "a wonderful job in keeping it from her," Dr. Lefever said. "Thomas was at her bedside when she died."

Miss Landi was born in Venice, Italy, of noble Austrian parents.

She achieved success on the stage in England and the United States, then won starring roles in many Hollywood films. Meantime, she published novels in several languages in Europe and four in the United States.

Her talents also included singing and piano playing.

FOUR YEARS AGO, Miss Landi retired from the stage. Since then she has devoted her time largely to writing on her 123-acre farm, "Bright Acres," near Kingston.

A daughter, Caroline Maude Landi, her only child, was born in 1944.

Miss Landi was born Dec. 8, 1904, the daughter of Count and Countess Charles Zsazsardi-Landi.

Her stage career began with a stock company in Oxford, England, when she was 19. Within three years, she won the leading feminine role in "Kismet" in London and went on to star in "The Constant Nymph," "Lavender Ladies" and "Farewell to Arms."

In 1931, she came to this country and made her Broadway debut in "Farewell to Arms."

Soon she went to Hollywood where her first role was in "Body and Soul." She took leading parts in "The Sign of the Cross," "The Warrior's Husband," "The Count of Monte Cristo" and other pictures.

Tire Makers Fined $50,000 Total in Anti-Trust Action

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (AP)—Fines totalling $50,000 were imposed in federal court today in anti-trust action against leading tire makers.

Judge John C. Knox imposed the fines on the Rubber Manufacturers association, two of its officers and eight members. They pleaded not guilty to a criminal information charging violations of the Sherman Anti-Trust act in the sale and distribution of automobile tires.

J. Francis Hayden, chief of the anti-trust division of the department of justice here, said the defendants included substantially all the major tire manufacturers in the United States.

Filed in March, 1942, the information accused them of conspiring, in part through the medium of the association, to agree on prices, discounts, allowances, bonuses and other related practices to eliminate competition.

The association was fined $50,000; its president, A. L. Vilas, and assistant secretary, George Flint, $25,000 each. Fines of $5,000 each were imposed upon the Dayton Rubber Company, of Dayton; Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, General Tire and Rubber Company, B. F. Goodrich Company, Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, Seiberling Rubber Company, all of Akron; the U. S. Rubber Company, of New York, and the Lee Rubber and Tire Corporation, of Conshohocken, Pa.

by the police yesterday, Chief James A. Laughhead announced. Laughhead said the only new development in the case was that John Banyai Jr., as reported in The Mercury yesterday, had arrived home late Tuesday night and had found the house undisturbed. Previously, the family had told police that the last member returned at 10:30 o'clock.

This additional disclosure, as pointed out yesterday, narrowed the time of the ransacking down to a four-hour period between midnight and 4 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The investigation will continue. Laughhead added, with Motor Patrolman Thomas A. Lawler and Earl Rhoads working on the case.

It was the second time in two weeks that a borough home had been entered and ransacked. On Oct. 6, the home of Eugene Hohl, 504 Chestnut street, was entered and ransacked but nothing of value was taken.

Unlike the entering of the Hohl home, or the unsolved burglaries of the homes of Thomas Senuk, 411 South street, Charles L. Schulz, Park road, and Ernest W. Hunter, Wilson street, and Burdian drive, this was the first attempt made with members of the family at home.

In the previous robberies and attempted robbery, the homes were vacated at the time of the entries.

town, had taken a special interest in boys' work.

Because of his interest, club members believed, their memorial to the physician should be directed toward young people.

THEY SUGGEST that the projects may be used, not only for patients who can sit in bed or watch from wheelchairs, but may be used to flash slides on the ceiling, for bed-ridden patients.

The projectors and auxiliary equipment will be presented Tuesday night, when the club meets, to A. C. Seawell and Charles R. Wythe, administrators of the Pottstown and Memorial hospitals.

Presentation of a suitable memorial had been under discussion for several weeks, club members said.

Only yesterday was the final choice revealed.

She was on her way with her mother, Mrs. Stetson Ward, to visit Mayor Martin H. Kennedy yesterday. Two blocks from the city hall their taxicab bumped fenders with another. No one was hurt.

Little Miss Safety was delayed ten minutes but aside from a little shaking up, she was safe and sound.

The meaning of the Presidential campaign—the election comes Nov. 2—found President Truman announcing another grueling campaign tour.

This last big effort will start from Washington Sunday night, again by presidential train. There will be scores of appearances in big and little cities, with major speeches as follows:

Chicago on Oct. 25, Cleveland on Oct. 26, Boston on Oct. 27, New York on Oct. 28, Brooklyn on Oct. 29 and St. Louis on Oct. 30.

Mr. Truman will spend this Saturday in Pennsylvania, with a Saturday night speech at Pittsburgh.

Deney was represented by associates as being particularly interested in building up in Congress the same workable legislative majorities he has enjoyed as governor of New York. They say he is confident of winning Senate control along with the presidency.

UNITED NATIONS —

neutral—China, Colombia, Canada, Syria and Belgium—to push up the language of the resolution being read for tomorrow's session at 3 p. m.

It was understood that the resolution does not call the Berlin blockade a threat to peace as charged by the Western powers in their complaint to the council against Russia. Neutral sources said the plan provides:

1. An appeal to the Big Four to make no move which might lead to war.

2. Russia would lift the Berlin blockade completely.

3. Russia, Britain, France and the United States would carry out their agreement that the Russian zone must be established as the sole currency in Berlin under four-power control.

4. The blockade would be lifted 48 hours after the approval of the recommendation and a council of foreign ministers meeting would be called promptly to discuss Berlin and Germany as a whole.

(There was no suggestion in the Moscow press of what attitude the Kremlin had taken on the neutral's plan. Since the question went to the council the Russians have shown neither in earnest nor disinterest in compromises but have stuck to their demand for a meeting of the foreign ministers to consider the entire German question.)

In contrast to the bitter struggle over Berlin, peace and good will reigned for a change in the United Nations assembly's political committee. The committee agreed that a Mexican resolution calling on the five great powers to compose their differences and work for peace was good.

Tells of Slaughter

Former Polish army Captain Bronislaw Milynski is plain in Los Angeles, Calif., as he described the wanton slaughter of 15,300 Polish POWs in 1943 by the Russians. Brother-in-law of Arthur Rubinstein, noted concert pianist, Milynski is one of the handful of survivors. Describing it as the largest military crime of the last war, Milynski said it was hushed up by the U. S. and Britain because then Russia was our ally.

On the other hand, some children may take longer than six years to complete elementary school.

But for most, who finish elementary school in the customary six years work in the Junior High school follows directly, it was explained.

A boy or girl starting in the Junior High school still may be on one level in arithmetic, on another in English and on still another in social studies, Fosnacht brought out.

Rotary Clubmen Told How to Make a Speech

"So You're Going to Make a Speech," a talk by William B. Lange, president of the Glenade Board of Trade, was the feature of last night's meeting of the Pottstown Rotary club in the Elks home.

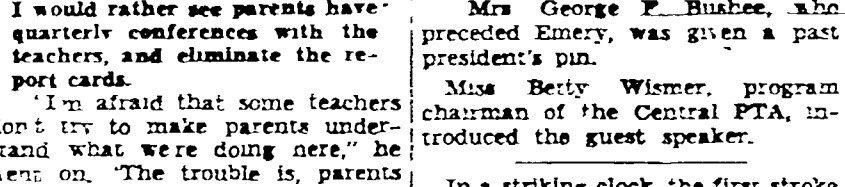

Lange, a past president of the Pottstown Rotary club and present manager of the Inter-County Hospitalization plan, gave the Rotarians numerous tips and outlined the technique of speech-making.

Seventy members of the club heard the guest speaker, after President S. Ernest Kulp held the business meeting.

WHEN THE HOUSE was built in 1904 by F. H. Keiser and company, much of the interior decoration was done in imported woods. The ceiling of the entrance hall in the bottom of the tower is paneled in wood and one of the two rooms in the cellar, once used as a card room, is entirely paneled in wood.

There are five fireplaces in the house.

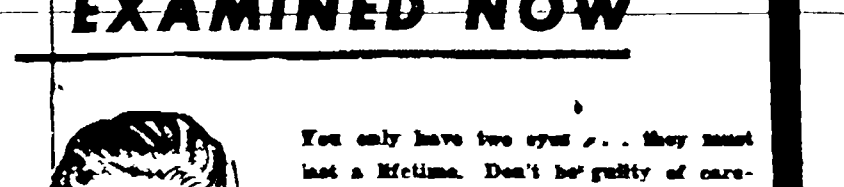

The late Adolf Prince bought the house in 1921. It has remained in the Prince family ever since.

Aerie members were told by an architect, sent by the national order to inspect the property, that conversion to a lodge hall should not involve great expense.

Eight States Battle for Control of Senate, Hinging on Four Seats

Washington, Oct. 21 (AP)—The people around President Truman say his "crusade" against what he calls the "awful" 80th Congress is going to pay off in Democratic capture of the Senate.

The way they size things up, the Democrats won't lose any Senate seats and are going to toss Republicans out of four or maybe five.

They particularly like their chances for picking GOP senatorial candidates in West Virginia, Oklahoma, Minnesota and Wyoming.

If the Democrats pick up four seats, they pick up control of the Senate. The Republicans now have a 51 to 45 margin.

There's a chance the election will produce the first 48 to 49 tie in history. The vice president then could vote to break that tie. If he is a Republican, the GOP would keep the leadership, jobs and committee chairmanships, but might have plenty of trouble doing business to their liking.

IMPRESSIONS GATHERED from trailing the traveling Trumans for thousands of miles by train, plane and car indicate that something approaching a tie, and a political jumble in Congress, is entirely possible.

These impressions are gathered in their more candid moments, from presidential associates and Democratic candidates and political leaders who meet Mr. Truman in every state and take a bow and pat on the back at every roadside stop. They are picked up, too, from newspaper political experts who keep tabs on the outlook in their own states.

Mr. Truman, of course, is trying primarily to get himself elected.

But he has tried to make the record of the Republican-controlled Congress the big issue. So he has plugged hard for Democratic candidates for Congress and hammered equally hard at GOP nominees.

THE PRESIDENT SO far has put in his heaviest jobs in Oklahoma, West Virginia, Illinois, Minnesota, Iowa, New Jersey, Colorado and Kentucky. And he has given some attention to the Senate races in Michigan, New Mexico and Delaware.

Here are some Democratic predictions, naturally with an element of wishful thinking mixed in.

Former Gov. Robert S. Kerr is a sure shot in Oklahoma against the Republican senatorial nominee, Rep. Ross Ritzel.

Mayor Hubert Humphrey of Minneapolis is just as much a cinch to unseat Republican Senator Joseph H. Ball in Minnesota.

In West Virginia, former governor, senator, and representative Matthew M. Neely is an odds-on choice against Republican Senator Chapman Revercomb.

Wyoming is closer, but Gov. Lester C. Hunt has the edge over Republican Senator E. V. Robertson in the race for Robertson's seat.

MR. TRUMAN SKIPPED Wyoming on campaign travels, but not on a trans-continental tour in June. He also invaded Montana in June out not during the actual campaign. In Montana, once regarded as a toss-up, the Democrats now say Senator James E. Murray is picking up strength and has a pretty fair chance to throw back the challenge of Republican nominee Tom J. Davis.

REPUBLICANS

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (AP)—One big aim of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's campaign is to retain Republican control of the Senate—and the GOP presidential nominee is reported confident he can attain that aim.

But no one in his camp is making any claim that the margin of control will be large. The consensus of Dewey aides is that it will be a slim majority—perhaps slimmer than the 51 to 45 division favoring the Republicans in the 80th Congress.

Dewey has given all-out aid to Republican senatorial nominees in a number of close races—out in one state, West Virginia, the picture is somewhat different.

THERE SENATOR CHAPMAN Revercomb, Republican, is locked in a hot fight with former Senator Matthew M. Neely, Democrat. The past session Congress passed a bill to admit European displaced persons. Critics said it discriminated against Jews and some Catholics.

Dewey appealed to Revercomb, chairman of a judiciary subcommittee, to have the criticized provisions changed. Revercomb, denying they were discriminatory, said "no."

Now Dewey's friends have passed the word privately to news men that he isn't going into West Virginia to help Revercomb. However, William S. Ryan, Republican chairman of Roanoke county, W. Va., announced today he had a letter from Dewey campaign headquarters saying it is "doing everything possible" to help re-elect Revercomb.

Ryan said Herbert Brownwell Jr., Dewey's campaign manager explained that the difficulty of arranging schedules was the only factor keeping Dewey out of West Virginia.

Since he started his campaign Sept. 20, Dewey has been concentrating on a number of other states where the Senate races are close. In some cases he has plugged hard for men he is understood to be lukewarm about having in the Senate.

BUT THE STAKES ARE OF With the Democrats in control of one branch of Congress, Dewey would have an uphill battle on his hand from the start. "It would be pitiful," said Senator Edward J. Tyne (R-Mont.) when Dewey was in Minnesota the last week urging re-election of the GOP colleague Senator Joseph H. Ball.

Dewey advisors say they are not too confident that Ball can retain his seat in the face of a challenge by Democratic Mayor Hubert Humphrey of Minneapolis.

Ball polled Dewey's ticket in 1944, but the New Yorker went to his aid again this year. The assistance may not be enough. Dewey aides say to overcome opposition to Ball for his stand in favor of the Taft-Hartley law.

DEWEY PARTISANS also say privately that in Oklahoma the Democratic candidate, former Governor Robert S. Kerr, has a very good chance. He also Representative Ross Ritzel are after the place being vacated by Senator Ed Moore, Republican.

On the credit side, the Republicans feel they have an excellent chance to unseat Senator James E. Murray of Montana, veteran New Dealer.

And they say the odds are slightly in their favor in Wyoming and New Mexico.

In Wyoming, Senator Edward V. Robertson, Republican, is having Taft-Hartley trouble in his race against popular Democratic governor Lester C. Hunt. But the Dewey people see an edge for Robertson.

In New Mexico, both sides figure it a close contest between the GOP's Patrick J. Hurley, former secretary of war, and the Democrat's Clinton P. Anderson, former secretary of agriculture.

But the New Mexico race is one of the Dewey political strategists put on the side of the ledger in their give-and-take calculations.

Manchurian Capital Captured by Reds, Government Reports

PEIPING, Oct. 21 (AP)—Pro-government Chinese press dispatches conceded tonight the Communists had captured Changchun, hungry capital of Manchuria.

These reports said the Communist broke into the long-besieged city on Monday and by Wednesday night had captured everything except the central bank of China. There, they said, a few government soldiers, including Gen. Cheng Tung-Kuo, Changchun commandant, had barricaded themselves.

The pro-government Peiping Times said even this resistance had ceased.

(The Communist radio said General Cheng "led his troops in downing arms.")

(THE COMMUNIST BROAD-CAST, heard in San Francisco by the Associated Press, congratulated
Red Generals Lin Biao, Lo Jung-Huan, Kuo-Kang and Chen Yun as the captors of Changchun.)

The Manchurian capital of some 1,000,000 people had been isolated so long that it had lost its military importance, but its loss was likely to have a bad effect on the morale of Nationalist troops everywhere.

(Associated Press correspondent
Harold K. Mills wrote from Nanking, "faith in China's central government has reached a new all-time low.")

(He said, "foreign diplomats have become openly concerned over the apparent deterioration of the government's strength to combat the Reds." Veteran observers of the China scene considered "anything can happen at any time.")

ON THE OPTIMISTIC SIDE, pro-government reports predicted recapture soon of Chinghsien, South Manchurian communications key city which the Reds took the past week.

The official central news agency said nationalistic van-guards entered the Chinghsien city limits on Tuesday, but a military spokesman said forecasts of its recapture were premature.

Late dispatches from Taiyuan said government planes knocked out Communist guns that had been shelling the airfield, and then landed more than 15 transport loads of troops.

Taiyuan, capital of Shansi province is accessible to reinforcements only by air. Its garrison was credited with rallying against the besieging Communists on the north and beating off Communist attacks on the southwest, killing a total of 4000 of the enemy.

Hands-Off Election Policy Adopted by State Agency

HARRISBURG, Oct. 21 (AP)—The State Federation of Labor said today it has adopted a "hands-off" policy in the race for State treasurer and auditor general.

"We are leaving it up to the local committees to make their own choice of candidates," said James L. Mc-Devitt, Federation president.

The two fiscal offices comprise the only state-wide race in the November election.

McDevitt said, however, that the State group has joined the national organization in endorsing the re-election of President Truman, and has gone on record opposing all congressmen who voted for the Taft-Hartley act.

Still Growls at Injured Keeper

Back in her cage in the Evansville, Ind., zoo, Kuku, female chimpanzee, chatters angrily at superintendent Bob McGraw, who stands just outside the bars nursing bites and bruises. Kuku and her mate, Hank, broke loose after being transferred from their cage while a new heating apparatus was being installed. After a 90-minute battle with keepers during which one attendant was thrown through a glass door in the animal house, Hank was shot to death and Kuku recaptured.

Soviet Demands 'Kill' Hopes for Berlin Vote

BERLIN Oct. 21 (AP)—The last hope for a city-wide election in Berlin was killed today by what anti-Communists called impossible conditions laid down by the Russians.

Every non-Communist official and political leader in the city's three Western sectors scornfully rejected the terms offered last night by the Russian Commandant, Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, for holding a city election in the Soviet sector.

The Western sectors prepared to go ahead with their plans for an election on Dec. 5 without the Russian sector, although Germans living in East Berlin will be invited to come over and vote if they dare.

BERLIN THUS appeared headed for a complete political split. The Russians almost certainly would reject any government chosen in such an election and would counter by forming their own Communist government in East Berlin.

Already the city is operating with two separate police forces, two kinds of money, and with Communist members boycotting the city council and city executive meetings.

Non-Communists charged that Kotikov was afraid to submit Communism to an election test. In the last city election in 1946 the Communists were beaten four to one.

"And this time it would be twice as bad," said the U. S. Commandant, Col. Frank L. Howley.

He added the Communists would be lucky to get 4 percent of the vote.

Accusing Kotikov of using "double talk" and "obvious soapbox oratory" in laying down his conditions, Howley said:

"Kotikov has always opposed elections until, as he once said in the Allied Kommandatura, 'I'm sure the reactionaries won't win'."

Two Red Airmen Declare People Dislike Communism

LINZ, Austria, Oct. 21 (AP)—Two Russian air force deserters who want to live in Virginia said today 70 percent of the Russian people dislike Communism.

They said the Russian people have looked in vain for the better life promised them at the end of the war. The Soviet people dislike the rule they live under but are "afraid to do anything about it," the two fliers said.

The men, both lieutenants who said they had been stationed in Germany after the war, gave their views at a news conference. They are Anatoly Barsov, 31, a pilot, and Piotr Pirogov, 27, navigator of the plane in which they flew from the Ukraine to Linz on Oct. 9.

THE RUSSIAN OFFICERS said they hoped to go to the United States and "become good American citizens." When several California newsmen suggested they probably would want to live in the Golden State the Russians replied with an emphatic "No." They said they had heard about the Virginia state fairs over the "Voice of America" broadcasts and that that was the state for them.

Pirogov said he wants "freedom of speech, freedom of the press and freedom to work." He said life in the Russian armed forces is "not bad, but it is all at the expense of the common people."

The fliers said Russian soldiers returning to the Soviet Union never are allowed to say anything good about any of the Western countries they have seen.

Pirogov remarked the dislike of the Russians for Communism stems from the fact they are basically farmers and do not like the collective farms decreed long ago by the Kremlin.

Barsov said there is no such thing as a free election in Russia. He said the people are not allowed to vote for the man of their choice and often are taken to the polls at gunpoint.

Legionnaires Elect S. Perry Brown as National Commander

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 21 (AP)—The American Legion brought its 30th national convention to a close today after unanimously electing S. Perry Brown, veteran of both world wars, its new national commander.

Brown, 55-year-old Beaumont, Texas, businessman, favorite son of the "old guard" in the balloting, succeeds James F. O'Neil of New Hampshire as commander of 3,000,000 American legionnaires throughout the world.

His election to the highest post in the biggest organization in the United States was assured when George N. Craig of Brazil, Ind., withdrew from the three-man race. James P. Green of Omaha, Neb., attorney, was Brown's leading opposition.

At the conclusion of the roll call, Green asked the election be made unanimous.

The unofficial vote was Brown, 2176, Green, 1262, and Craig, 6.

South Korean Government Says Rebels Will Be Cleared Out Soon

SEOUL, Korea Oct. 21 (AP)—South Korean rebels still held two cities tonight, but a high government source said they would be cleared out within four days.

This source said the south coast city of Iksan, where the revolt began early Wednesday, would be back in government hands within two days. It is on a peninsula, which has been sealed off by land and sea to prevent the rebels' escape.

Sunchon, 20 miles north, should be recovered within four days, the source estimated. A force of 1300 rebels which fled into the hills east of there is expected to be captured within the same period.

THE CABINET OF the American-sponsored South Korean republic abolished martial law except in North and South Cholla provinces, scene of the outbreak.

The cabinet was said to have declined an American army offer of military materials on the grounds that the situation was already in hand and gave no indication of spreading.

Total number of the insurgents was estimated at about 4000.

Premier Lee Bum Suk said the rebels had hoisted flags of the Soviet-sponsored North Korean Communist regime both at Yosu and Sunchon.

The North Korean radio, which in the past has frequently urged destruction of the South Korean government, remained silent concerning the uprising.

Opinion in Seoul was that the disorder was started in the far south rather than near the American-Soviet demarcation line, so that it would appear "spontaneous" rather than northern-directed.

Jewish Army Units Threaten To Cut Lines of Egyptians

TEL AVIV, Israel, Oct. 21 (AP)—Jewish forces swept into Beersheba, cradle of the modern Arab world, and occupied the town after a seven-hour battle today, a spokesman announced.

While Israel awaited notice that Egypt will guarantee to quit fighting, the Egyptians five-month-old invasion of Palestine appeared in danger of crumbling into isolated pockets of resistance against a determined Jewish offensive.

Fall of Beersheba in the far south of the Negev desert threatened to undermine the Egyptian front along the southern perimeter of Jerusalem. It also threatened with encirclement the strong point of Gaza, base of the Egyptian spearhead extending along the coast to Idku, 20 miles south of Jaffa and Tel Aviv.

Bethlehem and Hebron, Egyptian oases south of Jerusalem, were reported tottering, and Gaza, was threatened by Jewish spokesmen as a probable objective. Meanwhile, the Egyptian and Israeli air forces were trading blows from Haifa to the Egyptian border.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT said the Israeli cabinet had notified the United Nations in Paris that the Jews would order their troops to quit fighting within 12 hours after receiving assurances that the Egyptians have agreed to order a and maintain an effective cease-fire in the Negev by irregulars as well as regulars.

Until then, the spokesmen declared, the fighting goes on. A U. N. spokesman in Paris said "the Egyptians already have agreed to a cease fire," as ordered by the Security Council two days ago. "The Jews were asked to set the line and they must set one quickly."

Cabinet Urges French Premier Declare Martial Law at Coal Pits

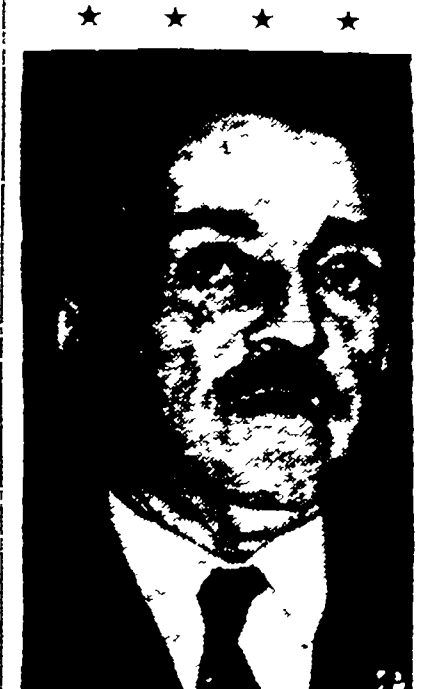

PARIS, Oct. 21 (AP)—Some French cabinet ministers were reported to be urging Premier Henri Queuille to declare martial law in the northern coal fields where more than 170 police and soldiers were injured in battles with strikers today.

Reports tonight said the ministers felt the premier should not only declare a state of siege in the coal fields but send more troops there and call up reserves.

Police reinforcements were flown to Grand-Combe in Southern France where 6000 miners, their wives and friends hurled scrap iron, sticks and stones and routed a smaller number of soldiers and militiamen today. A total of 130 soldiers and police were injured, 20 of them seriously.

In Boulogne, Northern France, a mob of 5000 strikers surrounded a prison and forced authorities to release seven arrested strikers and kidnapped the under prefect. Police, using tear gas, and an infantry battalion rescued him. Twenty policemen and 15 strikers were hurt. The under prefect was unhurt although he refused strikers' demands that he carry a red flag.

Junior Service League Members to Start Christmas Toy Repair Clinic for Needy

Pottstown's unfortunate children are assured of a somewhat brighter Christmas by the decision made last night at a meeting of the Junior Service League at the home of Mrs. J. Evans Thomas, 41 High street, to gather discarded toys from children that have outgrown them and after painting and repairing them, give them to the Salvation Army for distribution throughout the Pottstown area.

Mrs. Earl Keiser, 3415 Cherry Lane, has offered her basement to the group as a headquarters for their repair shop.

The group stated it would be grateful to any parents in Pottstown who have toys which their children no longer use and which could be made into an almost new plaything. If they will call either Miss Rita Bartholomew, phone 236-R, or Miss Almira Martz, 1587-J, co-chairmen of the project, the toys will be picked up.

Others who will assist with the work are: Mrs. James Ely, Mrs. John Carlin, Mrs. Donald Goodnow, Miss Jean Saylor, Miss Gladys Saylor, Mrs. Neil Tiller, Mrs. Richard Rosendale, Mrs. Robert Jeffries, Mrs. Evans Van Buskirk, Mrs. Joseph Werker, Mrs. Ralph Maack, and Mrs. Earl Keiser.

Robert Bittle to Head Newly-Formed Group In Lutheran Church

Mr. Robert Bittle was elected president of the newly-formed Young Adults of Transfiguration Lutheran church at a meeting in the church last night.

Miss Carolyn Longacre was chosen as vice president, Miss Ardith Donmoyer, secretary and Mr. Harry Hildebrand, treasurer. Advisors to the group are the Rev. Theodore L. Fischer and Mr. Melvin L. Feroc.

As its first activity, the class agreed to sponsor the annual Sunday School Halloween party, at 7 o'clock Friday night, Oct. 29.

Committees named were entertainment, Miss Margaret Diefenderfer, decorations, Mr. Feroc, refreshments, Mrs. Marie Hildebrand, chairman, assisted by Mr. Hildebrand, Miss Donmoyer and Mr. Sam Mauger.

A one-hour movie program will feature the party entertainment.

Among plans discussed for possible future activities were a Christmas party at the Germantown home for orphans and a three-act play to be given by church talent next Spring.

Among those present, in addition to the officers and committee members, were Mrs. Mildred S. Feroc, Mrs. Eleanor H. Bittle, Mr. Charles V. Myers, Mr. Frank Steffen, Mr. Barton Marquette and Mrs. Muriel E. Lichtenwalner.

Refreshments were served and games played following the business meeting. The next meeting has been scheduled for Wednesday, Nov. 17.

Jefferson PTA Hears William Carden Speak

"Leisure Time" was the subject chosen by Mr. William S. Carden, extension work director of the YMCA, when he addressed members of the Jefferson Parent-Teacher association Wednesday night in the school activities room.

He brought with him a large display of hobbies and activities of children which were made under the auspices of the YMCA. Included were scrap books, bracelets, shoe buttons, book racks, book covers, clothespin dolls and model airplanes and jeeps.

He discussed the children's hobbies and the importance of a hobby in a child's life. At the conclusion of his talk, he sang several solos, accompanied by Mrs. Mathilda Carden.

Later, he showed movies taken of activities the past Summer at the "Y" Summer camp.

Mrs. John McGowan gave highlights of the recent convention in Scranton, after which Mrs. Donald Sinds gave a short talk on the school of instruction in the Junior High school recently.

Martha Keim Entertained At Miscellaneous Shower

Capacity Audience
Hears Missionary
At WSCS Fall Rally

"Problems are many in the life of a missionary," Mrs. R. C. Gates, recently returned missionary from Rhodesia, Africa, told the Fall rally of Women's Society of Christian Service in Searles Memorial Methodist church yesterday afternoon.

"A good example is the one we encounter in our territory there. A man buys as many wives, with cattle, as he is able to. For each of these wives and the children that follow, he provides a small grass hut, and somehow manages to provide for them. But after he becomes a Christian, he is allowed only one wife and then, what can be done with the families for which he is responsible?"

"SHE CANNOT RETURN to her father, as she is a purchased item, and after he is a Christian, she is left without support and worse still, without prestige. This is one of the many problems which we have to work out," she explained.

She told of the poverty of the creatures living there, of how they sleep with blankets over their heads and their feet exposed, to keep rats, insects and other animals from crawling the less hardened parts of their body. The callouses on their feet are more than an inch thick, and oft times their feet are badly chewed without the native even awakening.

All of the Christians in this territory are forbidden to smoke or drink, with the natives themselves rigidly enforcing the issue.

THE CHURCH WAS filled to capacity by members from 75 visiting churches with more than 90 attending from the Pottstown area, including representatives from First Methodist church, Cedarville Methodist, Bethel Methodist, Mt. Carmel Methodist, and churches in Birdsboro, Spring City, Royersford and Coventryville.

Also included on the program was a solo by Mrs. Elsie Boyer, and greetings by Mrs. Walter Myers. The devotions were conducted by the Rev. James Matchette. Mrs. Paul Moyer served as organist in the morning and Mrs. Roland Dorang in the afternoon.

YWCA Board Learns

In Their Building

Young Women's Christian association board members were elated last night, at their meeting in the club rooms of the YWCA building, at the report that 2481 girls and women, had availed themselves of the different programs offered by the association in the past month.

All Junior and Senior High school girls from Pottstown, North Coventry and West Pottsgrove have been invited to come to the YWCA these nights and participate in the games.

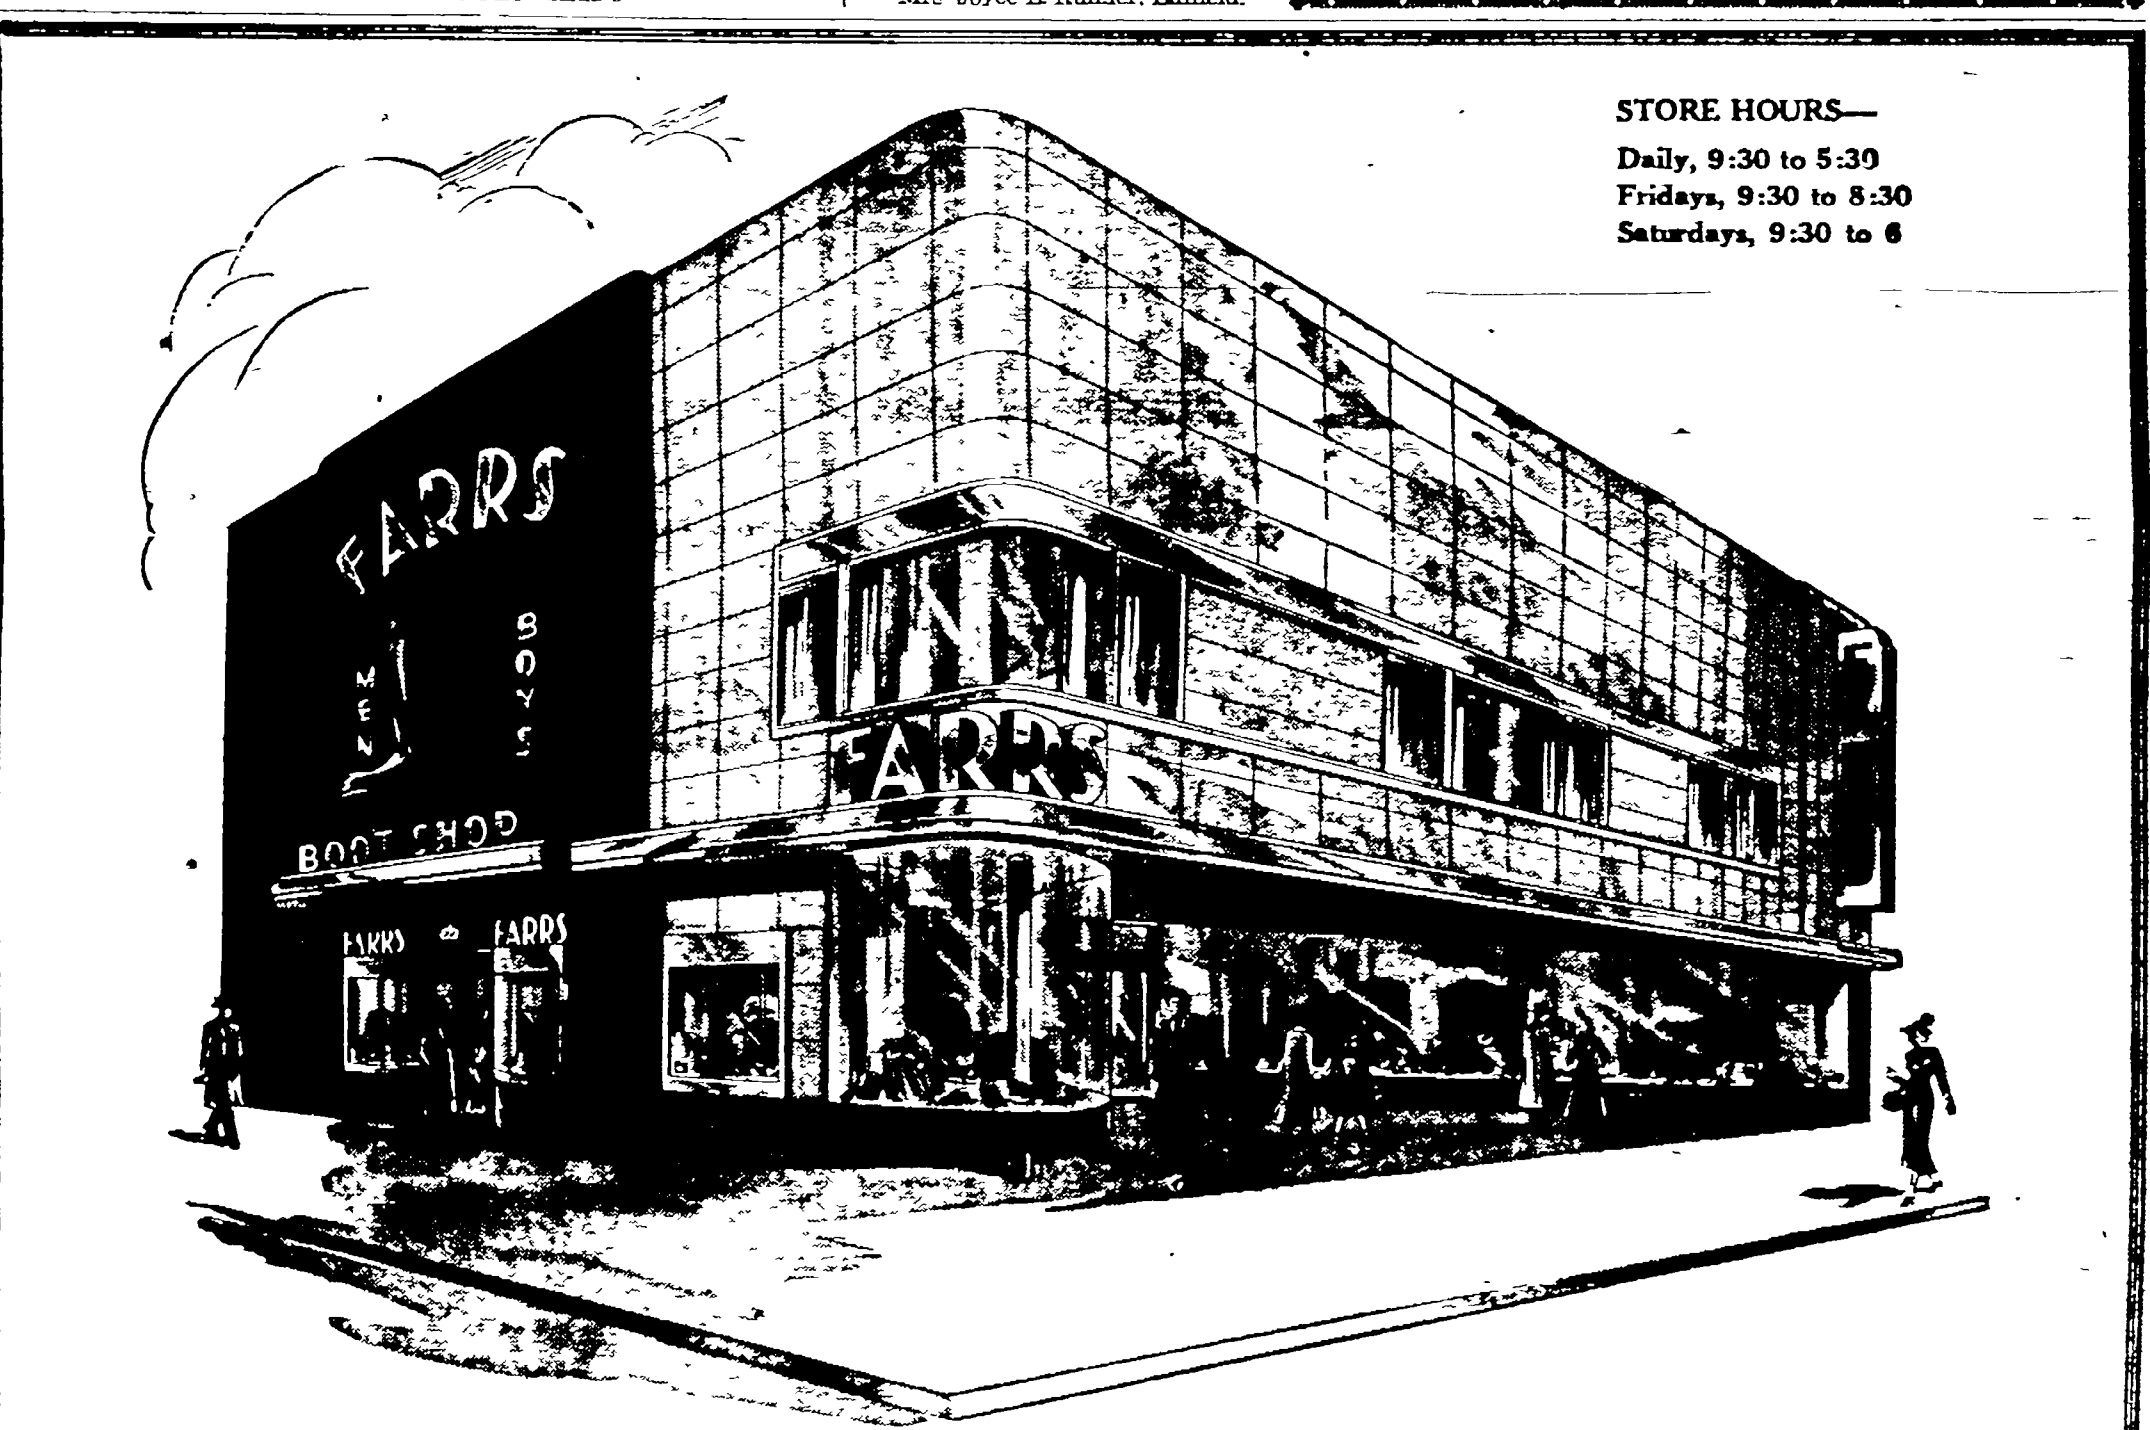

Mrs. Alex V. Tisdale, executive secretary, reported for the industrial committee, in the absence of Miss Florence E. Decker, stating that letters have been sent to all plants and business firms, urging the women of the town to swim on Monday nights in the YMCA from 8 until 9 o'clock, and to cowl at the YWCA from 7 to 9 o'clock on Wednesday nights.

MISS HELEN PURNELL, president, announced the annual rummage sale for the YWCA on Monday night. Mrs. Tisdale urged all directors and boys and girls to march in the Community Chest parade, Monday night. All boys and girls are to assemble at Mr. Vernon and High street, at 7:30 o'clock to get in line for the parade.

The Kiwanis club will sponsor a Halloween night Nov. 1, in Jive Junction. The annual Fall meeting of the YWCA will be held Nov. 4 at 8:15 o'clock. Dr. A. Herbert Haslam, member of Fellowship house, Philadelphia, will be the guest speaker.

Devotions were in charge of Mrs. Henry T. Schneider, while Miss Purnell presided.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By SHEPARD BARCLAY

Clear Logic Applied

CLEARCUT LOGIC is applied by the new Laws to all such matters as exposed cards. For instance, the declarer is never subject to penalty for exposing a card, and no card of his hand ever becomes a penalty card because the opponents are not harmed, and may be helped, by such an exposure. If he plays more than one card to a trick, he designates which is his play and merely picks up the other. Exposing his hand after the wrong defender's opening lead was covered yesterday. Intentionally exposing his hand otherwise causes his act to be treated as a claim or concession of tricks.

When a defender faces a card on the table, or sees the face of a card belonging to his partner before he is entitled to such a card becomes a penalty card except as specifically provided otherwise in the Laws. A penalty card must be left face up until played but if a defender picks one up and declares before requiring it to be faced again, it ceases to be a penalty card. A penalty card must be played or led at the first opportunity. When nothing does not constitute a revoke. If a defender has two or more such cards, one declarer may designate which is to be led or played. If a defender improperly exposes his remaining card or cards, the declarer may treat the remaining cards of either defender as penalty cards. The penalty of the other defender being picked up if exposed.

Any player, including dummy, unless he has forfeited his rights as explained yesterday, may ask any player having failed to follow suit if he has a card of the suit led, and may demand that an opponent correct his revoke. A player must correct his revoke in any of the first eleven tricks, or if aware of it before it becomes established, or in the twelfth trick if aware of it before the cards have been mixed together, no penalty for a revoke in the twelfth trick.

To correct a revoke, the offender substitutes any card of the led suit. A revoke card from a defender's unplayed hand becomes a penalty card, any other revoke card is unplayed. The non-offenders may withdraw any card played after the revoke, but before attention was drawn to it.

A revoke in any of the first eleven tricks becomes established when the offender or his partner leads or plays to a subsequent trick or signifies intention to do so by naming a card, claiming or conceding a trick or exposing a hand.

Establishment of a revoke causes the revoke trick to stand as played; it counts in transferring tricks as a trick won after the revoke. After play ceases, two tricks are transferred to the non-offending side if the revoking side won two tricks after the revoke, one if it won only one afterward, none if the revoking side won no tricks afterward or if it was a subsequent revoke in the same suit by the same player or if attention was first drawn to it after the cards were mixed together or if it was made in failing to play any card faced on the table including dummy's hand or a penalty card.

Right to inspect a trick and ask each player to name his card is granted to declarer and either defender before his side has led or played to the next trick. After play ceases the tricks and unplayed cards may be inspected to settle a claim of revoke or of honors, or number of tricks won or lost if after such a claim an opponent so moves the cards that the claim cannot be proved, it must be allowed.

TOMORROW—Defective tricks, tricks appropriated wrong, failure to comply with a penalty claim and concessions of tricks.

DRIFTIN' AROUND

WITH ELMER PANOC

DOYLESTOWN comes to Pottstown in December to do battle with the Trojans on the basketball court for the first time in 18 years.

That statement probably doesn't mean anything to many sports fans in Pottstown, but to Ed Good, Pottstown High basketball coach, it means a great deal.

This column got to talking with Good last night and he told us a very interesting story, so just sit back and read on.

The last Pottstown-Doylestown basketball game was played back on Jan. 21, 1930 in the Pottstown High gymnasium.

After a hectic battle, Doylestown emerged the victor by a 35-29 score and that victory helped the Doylestown quintet to finish third in the East-Penn Scholastic League.

Pottstown and Doylestown at that time were members of the East-Penn League along with Allentown, Bethlehem, Pottsville, Easton, Hazleton and Coatesville.

Incidentally, won the league championship and went on to annex the State basketball crown.

Ed Good, who was graduated from Doylestown High, was a member of that Doylestown team which defeated the Trojans here. The present Trojan mentor remembers he played a forward position but can't recall just how many points he scored.

Carroll "Mush" Bechtel is coaching Pottstown's Trojans at that time, while Bill Wolfe was at the helm of the Doylestown quintet.

Good said he remembers the benches on which the team players were seated that night. They were the same benches that are used in the gymnasium for girls basketball games today.

The Trojan mentor recalled how the benches kept sliding out from under the players on the slippery floor and how the Doylestown coach was getting a little hot under the collar over the incident.

The Trojan coach also remembers how he used to look for souvenirs at each high school the team visited. When the team came to Pottstown, Good slipped a cake of soap into his traveling bag after the game and left it there.

He then carved into the cake of soap the date of the game, the score and the names of the teams. A coat of shellac preserved the soap, and Good still has the little souvenir today.

When Good dropped Amble from the cage schedule the past year, Pottstown was left without an opponent to open the season here early in December. After failing to book an upstate team, Good returned to his alma mater and tried to book a game.

He had little trouble, for Bill Wolfe, Good's old basketball coach, is director of athletics at Doylestown and jumped at the chance of scheduling a game with a team coached by one of his players.

HOMER HIPPLE, former player and manager of the old JAC football team in Spring City, is handling tickets in the Spring City and Royersford area for the Schuylkill Valley Old Timers association banquet in Norristown Oct. 30.

Hipple said yesterday he thinks he has enough guests for those old players in the Twin Borough area who are interested in attending the affair this year.

Some of the old timers who attended the banquet the past year were Hipple, Wub Wunder, Cy Westcott, Clarence Gehris, Burgess Benjamin Bertolei, Spring City; Joseph Miller and Maurice Eppheimer.

ONLY THREE high school football teams remain unbeaten in Montgomery county and two of those high schools are right in the Pottstown area.

Both of these schools, Royersford and East Greenville, are members of the Upper Montco league and must face each other on the gridiron this fall which means one of the perfect records is bound to be spoiled.

East Greenville has won five games in succession this year, while Royersford has won three games and tied one. Royersford is the defending Montco league champion in football.

Landside, the third unbeaten team in the county, heads the entire list with six straight triumphs. Pottstown dropped out of the select group the past week after losing a 13-7 decision to Phoenixville.

The Trojans are currently sharing seventh place in the county standings with Norristown. The Trojans and Eagles sport records of three wins and one defeat.

Green Quarterback to Lead Eagles in Crucial Pro-Tit

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21 (AP)—Bill Mackrides, the greenest quarterback in the National Football League, gets his first starting assignment Sunday against the greatest passing trio on the gridiron — and the kid thinks he can win.

Once a water boy for the Philadelphia Eagles, Mackrides will try to pitch the Eagles to their first league victory over the Chicago Bears with a sell-out Shibe Park crowd looking on.

But barring his path to Frank Merriwell glory will be the Bears' great duo of Sid Luckman, Johnny Lujack and Bobby Layne.

IT WILL BE the NFL game of the day matching the leaders of each division, the Bears unbeaten in the West and the Eagles riding the crest in the East.

Mackrides, a second stringer with practically no big-time experience, is getting the chance because of an injury to veteran Tommy Thompson, currently the league's leading passer. Thompson suffered a shoulder separation against the Washington Redskins the past week.

"It's a great chance," said Mackrides, a personable 185-pounder who played college football for the University of Nevada.

"OF COURSE, it was tough that Tommy got hurt, but I think — I hope, anyway — I can fill his shoes."

Charley Ewart, the Eagles' general manager and backfield coach, briefed the situation this way:

"Bill is a good passer. He really knows how to throw and he has good receivers. He handles the ball better under center than Thompson. But he's green and those big Bears — and they're plenty tough — will be laying for him."

"Bill's got plenty of savvy though, and nobody is going to get him upset. It's his big chance, and he isn't going to let anybody take the play away."

HEAD COACH Earle J. (Greasy) Neale pointed out that Mackrides is a promising youngster and that he deserves a starting job, "but it's a damned shame it has to be against the Bears. I only hope the kid can come through."

At 22, Bill no longer is the Eagles' mascot. He'll be their main offensive spring Sunday and the kid with the quiet confidence quite possibly might come through on the successful end.

WEST CHESTER SPORTS RECORD OF FIVE WINS

Only Five Lettermen on Squad; Line Averages 183 Pounds Per Man

West Chester High's strongest team in recent years, winner of five consecutive games, will furnish the opposition for Pottstown High's Trojans on the gridiron tomorrow afternoon.

The game will be played at West Chester, starting at 2:15 o'clock.

Among the Warriors' victims this year is Phoenixville, victor over Pottstown by a 13-7 score the past weekend. Other schools who fell under the West Chester gridiron this year are Collingdale, Woodbury, P. S. DuPont and Downingtown.

Pottstown can regain some of the prestige it lost by losing to Phoenixville with an upset victory over the Warriors tomorrow. The Warriors have won five straight, and if Coach Heeb Meyers proteges can halt that winning streak they can clump right back to the top of the heap.

THE WARRIORS, however, will rule as favorites on the strength of its record. Collingdale fell under the Warriors, 14-0. Woodbury was beaten, 14-13. Phoenixville absorbed a 25-0 lacing and Downingtown went down, 13-6.

Pottstown has blanked Upper Merion, 26-0, trounced Bristol, 46-0, dumped Norristown, 15-12, and then lost to the Phantoms.

Coach Elmer Haupt's crew will have a big weight advantage over the Pottstownians in tomorrow's annual tussle. The Warriors will field a line that averages 183 pounds per man and a backfield that averages 169 pounds per man.

Pottstown's line average is approximately 165 pounds per man, while the backfield average scales around 155 pounds per man.

POTTSTOWN can boast more experience than the Warriors, but Haupt has molded a winner from a squad that includes only five lettermen from the 1947 team.

The five lettermen, John Harris, Vince Cialini, Bob Harkins, Connie Letters and Duke Evans, have formed the nucleus of this year's fine team.

Haupt, however, is not too sure that the Warriors can take the Trojans tomorrow. Haupt explained yesterday, "If the boys play the kind of ball they have been, we will be all right. But they can't do the things they did against Downingtown the past week and expect to beat Pottstown. It's going to take a good team to beat us, and we can't afford to let down in any of the coming games."

Harris, Cialini and Ray Kelley spark the West Chester offensive attack from the T-formation. Harris, the fullback, was ineligible for the first three West Chester games because of studies, but he has returned to action and will start against the Trojans. He played his first game this year against P. S. DuPont. Cialini and Kelley are the fastest men on the squad and do most of the ball carrying in the open field.

Ex-Champs in Get-Together

Three former boxing champions get together in New York to look over a new book on boxing. The champs are Bud Taylor (left) ex-bantamweight king, Mickey Walker (center) former middleweight titleholder, and Jack Dempsey, the one-time heavyweight king. Author of book, Paul Shoaf, is in rear.

Falcon Eleven Can Take Spotlight With Upset Win Over Greenies

West Pottsgrove's Falcons, victorious only once in four games, gets its chance to take the spotlight in the local football picture this weekend when they hit the road to take on East Greenville's unbeaten griders.

An upset victory over the Greenies would make the Falcons king for a day in the local football world and would boost them into first place in the Upper Montco League.

As it stands now, the Falcons are in second place, only a half game behind Royersford's defending champions and East Greenville.

EAST GREENVILLE has won five games in succession this year and will be trying to make it six in a row at the expense of the Falcons Saturday at East Greenville.

The Falcons are in high spirits and are expected to be in top-top shape for Saturday's tussle. Steve Sabo, Joe Dori, Joe Clori and Bill Wilkinson will make up the Falcon backfield Saturday.

With Sabo and Clori back in the lineup, Falcon followers feel the West Pottsgrove eleven has a good chance of upsetting the Greenies this weekend.

EAST GREENVILLE eked out a 7-6 conquest a year ago, and that is another reason why the Falcons are eager to dump Coach Dave Pritchard's undefeated crew.

The Falcons will wind up practice tonight with a light session of signal drills. Coach Bill Cohen was busy during the week strengthening the Falcons' running attack which hasn't been going too well this year. With Sabo, Clori, Dori and Wilkinson in top shape, Cohen thinks the Falcons may be able to match East Greenville's running attack. The Falcons were also working on their passing offense during the week, just in case the running attack is slowed up.

Richie Ziegler and Bob Bieler are the main threats in the East Greenville backfield and are sure to cause the Falcons some trouble in Saturday's Montco league fray. Ziegler led the Greenies to a convincing 30-0 triumph over North Coventry the past week by scoring four touchdowns and passing for another. North Coventry is West Pottsgrove's Thanksgiving Day opponent.

STENGEL MUM ON YANK PLANS FOR NEXT YEAR

Casey Won't Go Out On Limb, Will Study Rosters and Farm Clubs

GLENDAL, Calif., Oct. 21 (AP)—Casey Stengel made it clear today that Casey isn't crawling out on any limb in regard to his new job as manager of the New York Yankees baseball club.

Home after all the hubbub attendant of his re-entry into major league ball, Casey Mt a long, fresh cigar, propped his feet on one of Mrs. Stengel's nicest pieces of furniture and began to talk.

"I realize I'm taking on a big, tough job, but I feel very fortunate and I appreciate the confidence placed in me."

"SOME PEOPLE are saying," he mused, rather seriously for Casey, "that I got the job simply because of my close friendship with Del Webb and George Weiss."

"Personally, I don't think they're going around handing out jobs like that just because they know a fellow by his first name."

"I was in the organization in 1945, managing Kansas City, but I had to go out and work my way back to the majors, just like a player."

Casey climaxed his efforts, you know by piloting Oakland to the Pacific Coast league pennant this year.

WILL HE RECEIVE $35,000 per year with the Yankees as reported? Stengel grinned.

"I'm getting enough. Just let it go at that. Mrs. Stengel has been in every store along the coast from Mexico to Canada and now she's got the whole Eastern half of the country to work on. So let's just kind of skip the exact amount and say I guess we'll be able to limp along all right."

Casey's Oaklanders were dubbed the "Nine Old Men," and Stengel chuckled again. "Believe me, those players are the real reason why I'm back in the big time."

Rumors Reveal Paul Brown Will Leave Cleveland Club

CLEVELAND, Oct. 21 (AP)—Paul K. Brown, coach and general manager of the Cleveland Browns, will resign as chief of the All-America Football conference changes and return to the intercollegiate field in 1949.

"That's a flat statement, and probably 'Precision Paul' would not confirm it, but folk closest to the former Massillon High, Ohio State and Great Lakes mentor know that it is true."

A source as close to Brown as a source can be declared today.

"If Paul is offered a worthwhile intercollegiate coaching job, he will make a move after this season. And that 'worthwhile' offer need not be in terms of money. He'll take the first job that's worthy of his talents."

ASKED WHY Brown would give up his lucrative job with the Browns—his contract calls for $25,000 annually plus a portion of the "gate"—the spokesman said:

"Paul never reckoned on getting into a football war, and he has no stomach for such things. He's not a muscle man with the idea of running someone out of business."

CHARLEY FUSARI KO'S LARKIN IN JERSEY CITY

Only 7687 Pay to See T of C's Indoor Show; Profit Very Small

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Oct. 21 (AP)—Charley Fusari, blond Irvington, N. J., welter contender, stopped the veteran Tippy Larkin of Garfield, N. J., tonight in 2:35 of the sixth round of a scheduled ten-rounder as the Tournament of Champions opened its indoor season at the Jersey City Armory. Fusari weighed 147, Larkin, 143½.

Larkin, showing little of his old master boxing form, never went down in the all-Jersey finale, which ended with the 31-year-old veteran collapsing against the ropes. Referee Paul Cavalier stopped the bout to save Larkin further punishment.

The winner, who is supposed to have a "promise" of a title shot at Welter King Ray Robinson, hit Larkin at will after the second round. He had flattened Tippy in the ninth round of a previous meeting at Madison Square Garden, February 14, 1947.

LASHING OUT with a right-handed attack, Fusari started Larkin on his way in the third round. Time after time he crossed his right over Tippy's low left.

In the fifth Fusari landed eight straight rights to the chin and jaw of Larkin who floundered from clinch to clinch, falling against the ropes and holding on as well as he could. A Fusari right chop to the head almost sent him down at the bell.

It was obvious that the end was near as Fusari landed a left to the jaw as he bounded out of his corner to start the sixth. A right sent Larkin reeling around the ring, with his head down and no defense. A left hook was the final blow as Larkin collapsed unsteadily and then collapsed against the ropes. Referee Cavalier was quick to signal that it was over.

The T-of-C attraction drew 7687 paid and a gate gross of $28,958 with Larkin getting a $15,000 guarantee and Fusari drawing down 30 percent of the gate, there was little profit for the promoters who are the latest threat to Mike Jacobs' ring empire. An additional $7500 was received for television rights.

Rittenhouse Plays Host To Golden Cubs Today

Having broken their three-game losing streak the past week, the Golden Cubs of Pottstown Junior High will shoot for their second consecutive win this afternoon when they travel to Norrisstown to face Rittenhouse Junior High at 3:15 o'clock.

After today's game, only two more games remain on the Cubs' schedule and both will be played on Franklin Field here. Bridgeport comes here next week followed by Ardmore.

Coach Gene Kauler announced yesterday that he will start Mike Krickzy and Frank Harrison at ends, Don Grim and George Cizick at tackles, Merrill Renninger and Dave Snochors and guards and Dick Weiser at center. The backfield will consist of Dave Ricketts at quarterback, Bob Kulp and John Harvey at halfbacks and Stan Chaplin at fullback.

THE HILL WINS BY 7-0

Eric Jones' 12-yard pass to Andy Kaul in the end zone gave The Hill fourths a 7-0 victory over the Reading High junior varsity gridder yesterday on The Hill far fields. John Morrison converted the extra point.

BY WHITNEY MARTIN NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (AP)—Here we go again.

Joe Louis, with his usual fine timing, like innumerable other champions shows he has a little of the yo-yo, or comeback spirit, in him by announcing he will fight again next year.

It's true the big guy never has been away, but at the same time he announced from the ring after his last bout that he was through only neglecting to say positively.

The timing element is noted in that his current announcement comes on the eve of an exhibition tour. The fans will turn out to see a working champion whereas they might, stay away in round numbers if the exhibitionist was a retired bloke who never again would fight for hire. It would be too much like gazing at a cracking, deflated pigskin in a school trophy case bearing the painted information: "1908—Blowhard Normal 32, Tinture Tech 67."

There are two schools of thought as to the wisdom of the champion fighting again.

THOSE WHO DON'T like the idea probably are influenced by sentimental reasons. They want to remember Louis as the great fighter he unquestionably was, not as a slow, creaking relic that wasn't even a reasonable facsimile of their hero. They recall that in his last two fights, with Jersey Joe Walcott, Louis' slip was showing more than a little.

The other school takes the "and why not?" attitude. The

Norco Hockey Team Tops Downingtown

Shirley Hall, North Coventry High center forward, scored four goals in the second half to give the Norco Passes a 4-2 triumph over Downingtown High's girls hockey team yesterday on the victor's field.

Becky Mashinero and Sally Bertelmo scored in the first half to give Downingtown a 2-0 victory, but Hall wasted little time in tying up the game and then putting Norco ahead early in the second stanza.

In the preliminary tussle, the Norco junior varsity edged Downingtown's reserves, 2-1. Joyce Giles and Jace Cisarik scored for the victors.

Maria Assunta Loses 3 Men For Pelter Tilt

students figure that as fighters go the champion has taken comparatively little punishment, and would not endanger his well-being by continuing to fight.

Fighting is his business, and a business man doesn't make money by retiring. Louis has a plush standard of living, which takes an income much greater than his would be in retirement.

ON TOP OF THAT, who does he have to fear right now? Faded as he is, he still would be an odds-on favorite against any fighter currently on the horizon.

The men mentioned as the possible opponent in the next fight are Joe Baksi, Ezzard Charles and Lee Savold. Only Charles, a much younger man, and fast, might conceivably give the champion trouble and Charles is a light heavyweight.

Savold is an enigma. We've seen him when he looked great, good enough to give any fighter a battle. We've seen him when he looked like the end of a sad story. His record has more ups and downs than a teeter-totter. Right now it's on the up. It is assumed it also is on the up and up.

We have a hazy idea it will be Savold in the opposite corner when Louis enters the ring next June. If Savold could blow over a good name fighter, such as Gus Lesnevich, in the meantime, he could be built into quite an attraction, although in the past, the presence of Louis has been attraction enough.

Maria Assunta AC will be minus two valuable ends and a regular tackle when they go after their fifth consecutive victory Sunday afternoon on the West Pottsgrove High field against Pelter AC of Philadelphia.

John Panoc and John Krickzy, two big ends, have failed to recover from injuries, suffered in the past week's game with East End AC of Reading and will not play Sunday. Team officials said Panoc and Krickzy will be out of action indefinitely.

Plots was injured while working in an industrial plant during the week and will not see action Sunday afternoon.

JOHNNY BOLOGNESE, co-captain of the local team the past week, was injured slightly in the first period against Reading, but he recovered quickly and will start Sunday.

The Maria Assunta team has been practicing every night this week for Sunday's game with the Philadelphia. Final workouts will be held tonight on Haisdon's Field.

Nick Cimino, assistant coach, has handled the team this week in the absence of Head Coach Earl Strange. Strange is expected to return from Chicago sometime tomorrow.

Book, Missing 10 Years, Turns Up in Hong Kong

PASADENA, Calif., Oct. 21 (AP) — A book, missing from the Pasadena City college library for ten years, has been returned.

It was found, appropriately enough, in Thieves' Market, Hong Kong, China.

The American consul-general in Hong Kong, Arthur A. Simpson, discovered the book, a volume from an encyclopedia set, while browsing in the Thieves' Market book mart. He noted the Pasadena City college sticker and stamp marks and prepared its shipment home.

Insurance Buyers Need Professional Advice Today, Local Life Underwriters Are Told

Because of taxes, increased prices and other variables, the insurance-buying public needs professional advice to buy insurance properly. 26 members of the Pottstown Life Underwriters association were told last night.

Meeting at the Clover Leaf restaurant for a dinner session, the club was addressed by Dr. Ross M. Trump, assistant dean of the college of the American Society of Chartered Life Underwriters.

Life insurance, in one of its primary roles—as part of an estate—must be constantly watched by an expert eye to determine when changes in the amount or type of insurance are required, he said.

The advisor in this case, the life underwriter acts in the same capacity as does a corporation's lawyer, Dr. Trump added.

To be equipped for his job, the underwriter must have a knowledge of his business, a skill at interpreting trends and a love of people and their problems, he concluded.

Saved From Ga. Prison, Man Faces New Charge

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 21 (AP) — James Moreland, 28, today faced an assault charge involving a waitress just a year after the Allegheny county courts saved him from returning to a Georgia prison camp.

He was committed to the county jail, charged with assault with intent to ravish.

Judge Samuel Weiss a year ago refused to grant extradition of Moreland to Georgia. Moreland had said he would be killed if returned to finish a 12-year sentence for a $19.20 burglary.

Weiss said today, "You can be sure that if Moreland has done anything wrong and has been found guilty, he'll be punished. Society will be protected."

Visual Education Film Is Shown to Teachers

A motion picture instructing teachers on the most effective use of class room films was shown at a meeting of the Pottstown Teachers' association held in the auditorium of the Pottstown Senior High school.

The showing of the film followed a brief business session of the group, G. Luther Supple, president, reported.

The group met at the high school Tuesday afternoon.

Silent Screen Comedian, Buster Keaton Returns

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 21 (AP) — Buster Keaton, one of the great comedians of the movies' pie-throwing era, is on his way back.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer today said the frozen-faced silent pictures star will play a top role with Judy Garland in "The Great Dictator."
